
YALDEINU ANNOUNCES 2009 SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CHILDREN IN URUGUAY

TORONTO – Nov 5, 2009 – Yaldeinu, a charitable organization dedicated to providing formal and informal Jewish education to children and young adults in Israel and developing countries recently announced a contribution to its partner school in Montevideo, Uruguay.

The funds will allow four elementary school students to attend the Escuela Integral Hebrea Uruguay (E.I.H.U.) for one academic year.

“After visiting E.I.H.U. last year and meeting with its directors, I knew it provided a natural opportunity for Yaldeinu. We are pleased to provide these scholarships and we look forward to working together in the future,” said Michael Ettedgui, Founding Director of Yaldeinu.

“[Yaldeinu has] made it possible for these four students to ensure their education at our school, which will not only give them the necessary tools to be prepared for their future, but also provides them with a sound Jewish education,” said Ruth Mandel, President of E.I.H.U.

The primary school at E.I.H.U. is currently not receiving scholarship aid from any Jewish Diaspora organization.

Yaldeinu continues to seek new schools abroad that fall within its funding parameters for working partnerships
