
YALDEINU ANNOUNCES 2011 SCHOLARSHIP GRANTS TO MOROCCAN AND URUGUAYAN SCHOOLCHILDREN

TORONTO – October 30, 2011 – Yaldeinu, a charitable organization dedicated to providing formal and informal Jewish education to children and young adults in Israel and developing countries recently announced its 2011 scholarship grants program.

Working in partnership with the Joint Distribution Committee, Yaldeinu has provided scholarships for 10 underprivileged children to attend the Ittihad Maroc Jewish day school in Casablanca during the current academic year. “We are delighted to provide these scholarships in memory of our organization’s namesake, Marcos Soberabo, Z.L., who once taught in the Moroccan Jewish school system,” said Michael Etedgui, Executive Director of Yaldeinu.

Yaldeinu also provided scholarships to the children it has been sponsoring at the Escuela Integral Hebrea Uruguay in Montevideo since the organization’s inception.

“These gifts exemplify our commitment to Jewish education in communities with limited funding and we look forward to expanding our partnerships in the coming years,” said Etedgui.

-30-

About Yaldeinu

Yaldeinu (Our Children) is a grassroots charitable organization dedicated to preserving the traditions and ideals of Judaism by providing formal and informal education to a myriad of Jewish children in various parts of the world. Headquartered in Toronto, Canada, Yaldeinu’s activities are divided into two categories: Jewish day school education and Jewish camping.